Inkspiration Saturday

WHAT

Come for a full day of stamping projects, instruction and fun featuring wonderful Stampin' Up!® products!

As part of your goody bag, you'll be receiving the photopolymer stamp set Waterfront from the 2018 Occasions Catalog (p. 48), which will be used in a number of Inkspiration Saturday projects. This is an excellent set for guy cards, but you'll see how much more it can do (just check out the sentiments). Keep digging—there are other goodies in your bag, too!

This event will be held “camp style,” which means you'll stay at one table the entire day; relax and get comfy! The projects will be delivered to you when your table is ready.

You'll be making two of each card design, one card to keep and one to send.
