Greeting Cards & Tin

It's the time for giving, and this Splash of Inkspiration class will make it easy to delight someone on your list! In this class, you'll make 12 greeting cards with adorable scalloped-edge envelopes, stored in a patterned tin. It's an ideal gift for someone who wants to send beautiful, handmade cards—that someone else has made!

Using the Bird Ballad Laser-Cut Cards & Tin, seen on page 168 of the 2019-2020 Annual Catalog, you'll make 12 greeting cards (3 each of 4 designs) with envelopes using a variety of stamps. If you've never seen the laser-cut cards, they are stunning! We'll use a colored liner behind the laser-cut front to show it off and allow a greeting inside the card.

The front designs will be simple enough so the card won't require extra postage, but with all the wow factor! We'll use the Free as a Bird stamp set for one design, which is available as a registration option. Or, choose the Free as a Bird bundle option for the best value!

PS—I'll save the sturdy box the tin comes in, so you can mail this gift if necessary!

WHEN

Choose one of two sessions:

Friday, December 6, 6:30-9:30 p.m.

Sunday, December 8, 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.
